Fall Conference General Session Set for Sept. 14

Faculty and staff are encouraged to attend the annual Fall Conference General Session at 2:30 p.m., Monday, Sept. 14, in the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center. The recipients of the 2014-15 faculty and staff awards will be honored during the event, including those recognized for Distinguished Scholarship, Distinguished Teaching, Outstanding Staff, Outstanding Faculty Advisor, Learn by Doing Faculty Scholar, and the Provost's Leadership Award for Partnership in Philanthropy. Those giving fall greetings and remarks include Labor Council Representative Graham Archer, ASI President Owen Schwaegerle, Academic Senate Chair Gary Laver, and President Armstrong. Immediately following the Fall Conference General Session will be a farmers market-style reception featuring Cal Poly products and produce. Spouses and partners of employees are welcome.

Open Enrollment Period to be Sept. 14 - Oct. 9

The annual CSU Open Enrollment period for State employees will start Monday, Sept. 14, and run through 5 p.m. Friday, Oct. 9. During this time, employees will be able to enroll, change or cancel benefits for CalPERS health, dental, vision, Dependent Care Reimbursement Account (DCRA), Health Care Reimbursement Account (HCRA), FlexCash, Tax Advantage Premium Plan, and voluntary benefits plans. Open Enrollment is an opportunity for faculty and staff to review and update benefits for the upcoming year. Changes can be submitted through the Cal Poly Portal in the "Personal Info – My Benefits" section. Review all options and costs carefully before making any enrollment decisions for yourself and family members. The effective date for all changes made during the Open Enrollment period will be Jan. 1, 2016. For more information, contact Human Resources at ext. 6-5436 or humanresources@calpoly.edu.

Entries Sought for Fifth Annual TechPitch Competition

Cal Poly, Softec and the Economic Vitality Corp. (EVC) are accepting applications from startups in San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara counties for the fifth annual TechPitch competition. Entrepreneurs interested in participating can submit an executive summary of their business plan to the TechPitch website by midnight Monday, Sept. 14. Selected startups will receive professional consulting, contacts and opportunities from affiliate organizations and will get help accessing capital. Six applicants will be selected to present their technology-related business ideas to a panel of industry experts and investors. The winner will receive the $5,000 grand prize. For more information, go to www.calpolynews.calpoly.edu.

AFD AVP Karen Webb to Retire; Reception Set for Aug. 27

Karen Webb, associate vice president for Administration & Finance, is retiring after almost 20 years of service. During her tenure, Webb advanced from associate director of budget and analytic business services to interim vice president for Administration & Finance. She will be greatly missed by her Cal Poly family as she begins this new chapter of her life. There will be a farewell reception from 3 to 4:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 27, at the Alumni House.

Associate Dean Mark Shelton to Retire; Reception Set for Sept. 24

Mark Shelton, associate dean in the College of Agriculture, Food & Environmental Sciences, is retiring after 33 years of service to Cal Poly. He will return in the fall to teach part time under the faculty early retirement plan. Shelton started at Cal Poly in 1982 as an assistant professor in the Crop Science Department and served as the interim head of that department in 1996. He has served as associate dean since 1997, overseeing farm operations, and research and graduate programs. Since 2012 he has split his time between two positions, associate dean and executive director of the CSU Agricultural Research Institute. A reception will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 24, in the Erhart Agriculture Building (No. 10), Room 206.
