Cal Poly Harvests First Strawberry Crop

The first crop of strawberries planted on university farmland was harvested by the Cal Poly Strawberry Sustainability Research and Education Center on Feb. 18. Although the strawberries are just beginning to ripen, the first harvest produced about 80 pounds, which was sold at the campus farm stand. Once production ramps up in late March and early April, the Cal Poly branded fruit will also be sold in local grocery stores such as Vons and at multiple campus locations.

Annual Service Awards Luncheon Set for March 17

State, Cal Poly Corporation and ASI employees with milestone service anniversaries in 2014 will be honored at the Annual Service Awards Luncheon from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 17, in Chumash Auditorium. Organizers are collecting photos of the service award recipients to include in a slideshow. Phil Bailey will serve as master of ceremonies. Panel to Discuss LGBTQIA Family Planning Issues on Feb. 26

Faculty, staff, administrators and students will participate in the Queer Family Planning Panel presentation from 5 to 7 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 26, in UU 220. They will discuss adoption, donors, parenting and other issues related to families in today's society, including medical and legal options for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, questioning, intersex or asexual (LGBTQIA) families. The event is free and open to the public and is sponsored by the Pride Center and the Pride Faculty Staff Association.

Learn About CSU Fee Waiver Benefit

The fee waiver program provides eligible faculty, staff and management employees the opportunity to attend classes at CSU campuses at greatly reduced rates. This benefit may also be transferred to eligible dependents. For information regarding eligibility, guidelines, procedures and deadlines, contact Terizza Miller at tmiller@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-7354.

Retirements:

Cindy Campbell will retire after 34 years at Cal Poly. Campbell is the associate director of University Police and has held that position for almost 20 years. She has had a significant impact on parking and transportation at Cal Poly. Campbell is a leader in the parking and transportation sector nationally and globally. She also enhanced the careers of countless Cal Poly employees and students through training and professional development courses she taught on campus and in the CSU/UC systems in the areas of tactical communication and conflict resolution. A celebration in honor of her dedicated service will take place from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday, March 20, in the Performing Arts Center Lobby.
