

EMPLOYMENT

State Employment Opportunities

For an official list of vacancies or to apply, go to calpolyjobs.org. For help, call Human Resources at ext. 6-2236.

#103876 – Administrative Support Assistant II, Academic Affairs, Graduate Education. $2,539-$4,000 per month. Closes Nov. 30.

International Center Seeking Hosts for Local Activities

The International Center is seeking faculty and staff for the Poly Host program. Volunteers will host international students for various activities such as an informal dinner at a Poly Host's home, seeing a movie, meeting at a coffee shop, or celebrating holidays or family occasions. The commitment will help international students experience the community outside of the traditional academic setting. Poly Hosts will have the opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of other cultures while sharing their own. To learn more about becoming an International Poly Host and for an application, go to www.international.calpoly.edu/.

Veterans Awareness Week Events to Continue Through Nov. 13

The Veterans Success Center will host events through Friday, Nov. 13, that showcase the benefits of public service and opportunities for those who have served the nation. Events include:

Thursday, Nov. 12:

- "Job Opportunities for Engineers and Beyond," from 11 a.m. to noon in the UU Plaza;
- An information session on employment with Southern California Edison will be held from 5 to 6 p.m. in UU 220.

Friday, Nov. 13:

- "The Importance of Service," from 11 a.m. to noon in the UU Plaza;
- A reception to thank Northrop Grumman for their support will be held at 2:30 p.m. in the Veterans Success Center (No. 52), Room E-4. Campus is welcome to attend.

For more information, email veteranscenter@calpoly.edu.

Candidates for the Office of University Diversity & Inclusivity Program Director to Visit Campus

Four finalists for program director for the Office of University Diversity & Inclusivity have been invited to campus. Faculty, staff and students are invited to attend the forums on the respective dates:

- Thursday, Nov. 12, from 2 to 3 p.m. in UU 220: Cesar Margarito, assistant director, Gear Up, UC Santa Cruz;
- Wednesday, Nov. 18, from 2 to 3 p.m. in UU 207: Kari Mansanger, founding director, Campus Advocacy, Resources & Education (C.A.R.E.), UC Merced;
- Wednesday, Dec. 2, from 2 to 3 p.m. in UU 207: Nizhoni Chow-Garcia, research associate, Future Stewards Program, Rochester Institute of Technology;
- Thursday, Dec. 3, from 9 to 10 p.m. in Engineering West (No. 21), Room 105-A: Everette Brooks, assistant director, University Clubs and Organizations, Cal Poly.

Redesigned Cal Poly Magazine Available Online

Creative Services has introduced a redesigned Cal Poly Magazine with the food and wine issue. The fall issue features 'vinnovators,' innovators in viticulture; innovative new Learn by Doing facilities; and seriously good eats produced by Cal Poly. The issue also includes news on three faculty members selected to advise the United Nations on various issues; what faculty, students and facilities are doing to combat the effects of California's crippling drought; thoughts from the director of the Women's Engineering Program; videos; and more. To read the magazine or subscribe to future issues, go to <http://magazine.calpoly.edu/#in-this-issue>.

Gender Equity Center to Host Masculinity Dialogues Nov. 12

The Gender Equity Center will host its quarterly dialogue from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 12, in Chumash Auditorium. Titled PEN15, the event will use comedy to address stereotypes, myths and gender expectations men face today. For more information, email genderequitycenter@calpoly.edu.

Mothers Needed for Bottle-Feeding Study

If you are a mother 18-40 years of age and are bottle-feeding your baby 0-6 months of age, you may be eligible to participate in a Cal Poly study on how bottle-feeding influences infant feeding. The study consists of three two-hour visits, which will take place on campus. Mothers will be compensated $75 for time and travel. If interested, call ext. 6-5546 or email mtsanche@calpoly.edu.

Retirements

Johnny Rios, interim custodial manager for University Housing, will retire Tuesday, Dec. 1, after 42 years of dedicated service. He began his career at Cal Poly in 1973 as a custodian in Muir Hall. He was promoted to lead custodian in 1988, overseeing the custodial teams in Yosemite and Sierra Madre Halls. Rios has served in his current role as a member of the Housing Management Team since 2014. In 2002, he received the Chandler Award, which recognizes outstanding staff members in Student Affairs. The division will host a retirement reception from 3 to 4:30 p.m., Monday, Nov. 30, in the Poly Canyon Village Conference Room (No. 171, Room A-7).