Recipients Named for 2015-16 Outstanding Staff Awards

Three employees have been recognized for the 2015-16 Outstanding Staff Award: Launnie Gin, instructional support technician for the Horticulture and Crop Science Department; Ray Kisch, lab coordinator in Industrial Technology and Packaging; and Alexandra Kohler, assistant director of Campus Health and Wellbeing. The recipients will be honored at the Fall Conference general session in September, where they will receive a plaque and monetary award. For more information about the recipients and their accomplishments, visit <http://afd.calpoly.edu/hr/osa/>.

Grand Avenue to Close Through Summer at Pacheco Way

To accommodate construction, Grand Avenue will be closed to through traffic at Pacheco Way from Monday, June 13, through the summer. The parking structure at the Performing Arts Center will remain open and accessible, but there will be no access to North Perimeter Road via Grand Avenue. To accommodate the closure, SLO Transit and RTA bus stops will be relocated to Kennedy Library, and the Amtrak bus stop will be relocated to the Performing Arts Center Loop. To access campus, including parking lots along North Perimeter Road, employees and visitors may prefer to enter campus via California Boulevard or Highland Drive. For updates on summer construction projects, visit <http://granddetour.calpoly.edu/>.

2015-16 Federal Work-Study Program to End June 11

The last day students may work through the Federal Work-Study Program for the 2015-16 academic year is Saturday, June 11. Work-Study payroll must be submitted prior to the June payroll deadline. Any 'late' payrolls will be processed through regular student pay since late Work-Study pay cannot be authorized. Work-Study students may work up to 20 hours during finals week. There is no Federal Work-Study during summer quarter. The 2016-17 Federal Work-Study Program will begin Sept. 22. For more information, contact Barbara Rollins, Federal Work-Study program manager, at ext. 6-6584.

Red Cross First Aid Courses Offered Monthly

Environmental Health and Safety offers monthly American Red Cross First Aid and CPR/AED (automated external defibrillator) training on campus. To see the course offerings or to enroll, visit the Instructor Led Courses section of Skillssoft, the CSUwide online training program accessed through the Staff and Faculty Training tab on the Cal Poly Portal. Departments may also schedule training for groups of up to 10. The cost is $29 per person, which covers the Red Cross certification fee and course materials. For more details, contact Vivian Longacre at ext. 6-6628.

Career Services Accepting Donations of Professional Clothing

This fall, Career Services will host a clothing closet to provide free, work-appropriate clothes to students in need. Donations of clean, gently used, contemporary professional clothing can be dropped off at Career Services (Building 124) by the end of August. For more information, call ext. 6-2501.

Recreation Center Hosts Free Rec Fridays June 10 and 17

The Cal Poly Recreation Center invites eligible members of the Cal Poly community (alumni, employees, emeritus, and the partner or dependents of existing members) to be guests for the day free-of-charge on Fridays, June 10 and 17. Admission includes group exercise classes, use of locker rooms, showers, gyms, weight rooms, racquetball courts, pools and the climbing park. To learn more about programs and activities or a schedule of group exercise classes, visit the Rec Center website at http://www.asi.calpoly.edu/recreation_center. Photo identification and proof of eligibility is required for entry. For more information, contact Membership Services at ext. 6-1366.

Recreation Center to Change Guest Fee Rates

The Recreation Center will reduce the non-student guest rate from $10 to $5 through June 30. On July 1, the student rate will increase from $5 to $10, so the one-visit guest pass will be $10 for all guests. A new five-visit pass will also be available to eligible members of the Cal Poly community (alumni, employees, emeriti, and the partners/dependents of existing members) for $40, or $8 per visit. For more information about Recreation Center memberships, guest access and rates, contact membership services at ext. 6-1366.
