President's Community Service Awards to be Presented May 12

The 30th annual President's Community Service Awards will be presented to students, faculty, staff and community agencies from 4 to 5:30 p.m. Thursday, May 12, in the Performing Arts Center Lobby. The awards recognize contributions that impact unmet community needs and partnerships built between the university and community agencies. Reservations are requested and can be made by contacting Alexa Lindahl in the Center for Service in Action at ext. 6-5338.

Open Discussion About Food on Campus to be Held May 12

Campus Dining is hosting State of Our Plate, a food forum, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Thursday, May 12, in UU 204. The forum will serve as an open discussion about food at Cal Poly, to generate feedback about food options from the campus community. The forum will help inform Cal Poly Corporation about the optimal direction for food and dining. The forum will feature a panel of experts representing nutrition, sustainability, agriculture, student health and Campus Dining who will talk about programs and research related to food at Cal Poly. Social Sciences Professor Dawn Neill will speak about her findings in a recently published study about Cal Poly's food environment. The forum will be moderated by Rachel Fernflores, special assistant to the president.

Free Biometric Screenings Offered May 19

Anthem Blue Cross and Maxim Health Systems will be on campus to conduct free biometric screenings from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Thursday, May 19, in UU 220. The 15-minute exam will provide immediate results, including blood pressure, glucose and cholesterol levels, and body mass index. Seven $100 Visa cards and six $50 Visa cards will be given away to randomly selected participants. Refreshments will be served. Attendance is based on departmental operational needs and subject to supervisory approval. Reservations are recommended, though walk-ins are welcome if space is available. To reserve a space, visit the registration website at www.signupgenius.com/go/20f0a49a9ab28a4f85-worksite1 or call Erin Carlisle in Human Resources at ext. 6-5473.

May 18 Panel Discussion to Focus on Agriculture and Climate Change

The Center for Sustainability will host a panel discussion on "Climate Smart Agriculture" from 4 to 6 p.m. Wednesday, May 18, in the Advanced Technology Laboratories' Keck Lab (Building 7, Room 2). Panelists Renata Brillinger of the California Climate and Agriculture Network, Jeff Creque of the Carbon Cycle Institute and Marin Carbon Project, and Jean-Pierre Wolff of Wolff Vineyards will discuss the critical role of agriculture in addressing variations in climate change through mitigation and adaptation strategies. The panel presentation will provide an overview of the evolving framework for addressing climate challenges in the agricultural sector, new incentive programs to support innovation, and real-world examples that producers are using to sequester carbon and improve climate resilience. The panel will be followed by a discussion and question-and-answer period.

CSU Fee Waiver Benefit Available to Employees

The fee waiver program provides eligible faculty, staff and management the opportunity to attend classes at CSU campuses at greatly reduced rates. The benefit may also be transferred to eligible dependents. For information regarding eligibility, guidelines, procedures and deadlines, visit the Administration and Finance website at afd.calpoly.edu/hr/feewaiver.asp. For more information, contact Terizza Miller at ext. 6-7354.

Red Cross First Aid Courses Offered in May and June

Environmental Health and Safety offers monthly American Red Cross First Aid and CPR/AED (automated external defibrillator) training on campus. To see the course offerings or to enroll, visit the Instructor Led Courses section of Skillsoft, the CSUwide online training program accessed through the Staff and Faculty Training tab on the Cal Poly Portal. Departments may also schedule training for groups of up to 10. The cost is $29 per person, which covers the Red Cross certification fee and course materials. For more details, contact Vivian Longacre at ext. 6628.

Campus Dining to Give Away a Bike Every Week in May

To celebrate Bike Month, Campus Dining is giving away a free bicycle every week in May. To win, follow Cal Poly Campus Dining on Instagram and "like" the Friday Freebie photo. Among those who like the photo, one person will be randomly selected as the winner of a bike, supplied by Campus Dining's partner, Coca-Cola. Campus Dining is hosting the Bike Month promotion to reinforce its commitment to serving students nutritious, sustainable food that fuels their bodies, supporting an active lifestyle and academic success.
