Vista Grande 'Retirement' Party Set for June 3

Campus Dining is hosting a reception to retire the Vista Grande dining establishment from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Friday, June 3. Faculty, staff, alumni and students are invited to enjoy light appetizers and cake to celebrate its 43 years of service to the campus community. Including VG Cafe, the Burger Bar, and Vista Grande Restaurant (previously Sage), Vista Grande has served as the main residential dining hall for more than 126,000 freshmen since 1973. The doors will close Monday, June 13, to begin development of the new dining complex. The current 16,899 square-foot building will be replaced with a three-story, 35,000 square-foot facility. The new building will be LEED certified and feature integrated interior and exterior dining spaces.

Retirement Planning Sessions Include One-on-One Consultations and May 25 Workshop

Savings Plus is a program offered by the State of California that offers 401k and 457 deferred compensation plans. Both plans offer convenient payroll deductions on a pre-tax or after-tax basis and other benefits. Ralph Hoskins, a certified financial planner and the local representative for Savings Plus, will present a 45-minute retirement workshop at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, May 25, in UU 216. No pre-registration is necessary. For more information or a one-on-one account review, contact Hoskins at 805-459-2005 or hoskir1@nationwide.com.

Harvard Law's First Deaf and Blind Graduate to Speak on Inclusive Digital Spaces May 26

Haben Girma, the first deaf and blind graduate from Harvard Law, will present a talk, "Creating Inclusive Digital Spaces: Accessibility for Students with Disabilities" from 11 a.m. to noon Thursday, May 26, in UU 220. Girma, who works at Disability Rights Advocates, excelled because of the creation of a community that valued inclusion. In her talk she will address the importance of designing services with universal access in mind and share ideas on how to execute inclusive practices. For more information, contact John Lee, in the Disability Resource Center, at jlee245@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-5972.

Mental Health First Aid Training to be Held June 1-2

Counseling Services is offering Mental Health First Aid, a national certification training to support the campus community in responding to mental health crises. Open to faculty, staff, students and community members, the training will take place from 12:30 to 5 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, June 1-2, in Campus Health and Wellbeing (Building 27). Attendees will learn how to recognize the signs of mental health and substance use disorders and implement a five-step action plan to assess a situation and provide help, understand the impact of mental health and substance use disorders, and identify local resources. Reservations are required. Attendees must attend both days of training to earn the certification. Trainings are free and include lunch. For more information or to reserve a space, contact Hannah Roberts at ext. 6-2511 or hrober02@calpoly.edu.
