Cal Poly's 12th CubeSat to Launch with WorldView-4 Satellite on Nov. 11

Cal Poly, a major partner in the launch of DigitalGlobe Inc.'s WorldView-4 imaging satellite and the seven CubeSats riding aboard as auxiliary payloads, is gearing up for a Friday, Nov. 11 launch from Vandenberg Air Force Base. Onboard the Atlas V 401 rocket is OptiCube — the university's 12th CubeSat to be launched into space. The launch was delayed since September by wildfires at the Air Force base. It is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. The local community can watch the takeoff from Hawk's Nest on Highway 1, just a half-mile south of Vandenberg's main gate. WorldView-4 will deliver images of Earth sharp enough to identify the make of an automobile. Cal Poly served as launch services coordinator to secure passage of the auxiliary payload as part of the National Reconnaissance Office's ENTERPRISE mission. The microsatellites range in size from a softball to a loaf of bread.

Comedy 'Cosi' to be Performed at Spanos Theatre Nov. 10 to 17

The Theatre and Dance Department will present the comedy "Cosi" at 8 p.m. Thursday through Saturday, Nov. 10 to 12, and Tuesday through Thursday, Nov. 15 to 17, in the Spanos Theatre (No. 44). The play, written by Australian playwright Louis Nowra, is set in a mental institution in Melbourne, Australia, in 1971. In the production, Lewis, a recent university graduate, is hired to direct a play to be performed by the patients. Roy, an ebullient bipolar patient, convinces the group to perform Mozart's opera "Cosi fan Tutti." Hilarity ensues. Purchase tickets — $20, and $12 for students, seniors, children, faculty and staff — from the Cal Poly Ticket Office. Questions? Call ext. 6-4849.

Discounted apparel and supplies will line the sidewalk surrounding the store — with savings of 50 percent to 75 percent off regular prices. The sale is only at the on-campus University Store from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. For more details on University Store events, visit <http://bit.ly/2esENNZ>.

Football Team Offers Tickets to Nov. 19 No. Colorado Finale for Just $5

Cal Poly Football is offering $5 tickets to its season finale against the Northern Colorado Bears on Saturday, Nov. 19. Kickoff is at 6:05 p.m. at Alex G. Spanos Stadium. A 42-21 loss to No. 3-ranked Eastern Washington on Nov. 5 dropped the Mustangs two positions in the Football Championship Subdivision media poll (and four spots in the coaches poll), but the team's playoff hopes remain alive. At 6-3 overall and 4-2 in the Big Sky Conference, the Mustangs currently sit in a three-way tie for third place in the conference standings with Northern Arizona and this week's upcoming opponent, Weber State. As a result, Cal Poly very much remains in the hunt for an FCS playoff berth — something that has eluded the team since 2012. To purchase discounted tickets for the Northern Colorado game, visit <http://bit.ly/2fCkJpV>. Use Promo Code CPFS. You can also purchase them at the Performing Arts Center Ticket Office.

Retirements

Lois Kelly is retiring after 11½ years as director of Financial Aid and Scholarships. Kelly came to Cal Poly in early 2005 after spending 34 years working in financial aid and admissions at universities in four states. During her tenure here, resources have expanded from 9,000 to more than 13,000 recipients, and funds provided now exceed $155 million. For the past 12 years, she has kept score at Women's Volleyball home games. A farewell dessert reception in her honor will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday, Dec. 9, in the Administration Building Lobby (No. 1).
