Recent Graduates Report High Levels of Employment

Nearly 94 percent 2015-16 Cal Poly graduates are employed, in graduate school or otherwise purposely engaged — the highest percentage ever reported, according to the university's latest Graduate Status Report. Nearly three-quarters of 2015-16 graduates have secured full-time employment, and at higher-than-ever wages. Those facts and several others reported in the 2015-16 GSR point to significant improvements in employment and other post-graduation pursuits for new alumni. The nearly 94 percent of respondents who reported positive post-graduation outcomes (i.e., full- or part-time employment, graduate school, or other intentional pursuits) is an increase of 3 percent from 2014-15.

Cal Poly Choirs Bid Farewell to Conductor and Accompanist June 11

The Cal Poly Choirs will celebrate Thomas and Susan Davies at a spring concert titled "With Thanks to All" on June 11, as the couple acknowledges their extended family of university students and colleagues during their final concert. Tom Davies is retiring after 34 years as director of choral activities and vocal studies. Susan Azaret Davies has accompanied the choirs all the years her husband has conducted them. She will continue as a lecturer and staff accompanist. The Davies' final Cal Poly concert will include performances by students and an alumni choir. It will be held at 2 p.m. in Harman Hall of the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center.
