Dean Wendt to Lead College of Science and Mathematics

Provost Kathleen Enz Finken announced that Dean Wendt, a biology professor and currently the university's dean of research, will become dean of the College of Science and Mathematics effective July 1. Wendt, a 1993 Cal Poly graduate with a bachelor's degree in biology, will succeed current Dean Phil Bailey.

Retirements

The campus community is invited to celebrate the contributions of College of Science and Mathematics Dean Phil Bailey, who will retire at the end of June after 48 years of service, including 34 years as dean. A reception will be held from 3 to 6 p.m. Friday, June 9, in Chumash Auditorium. Bailey joined the chemistry faculty in 1969, became associate dean in 1973, was named dean in 1983, and twice acted as interim provost.

Judy Drake, library services specialist at Kennedy Library, is retiring after 45 years of service. Drake earned a bachelor's degree in history at Cal Poly and then joined the library's circulation department as a clerical assistant in 1972. She has been recognized with multiple awards, including the Outstanding Staff Employee award (2001-02), two recognition awards from the Black Faculty Staff Association for selfless dedication and support (2005, 2014), and an upcoming award from the American Indian and Indigenous Faculty Staff Association. Join the campus in celebrating Drake's legacy at a retirement reception from 1 to 3 p.m. Thursday, June 8, in Kennedy Library's atrium (No. 35).

Lisa Bruce, financial aid counselor, is retiring June 1. Bruce has always focused on serving and learning from students. She counts herself fortunate to have worked closely as a team with Student Affairs staff members and with WOW and Open House student teams while working in Orientation Programs from 2001-08 (now New Student and Transition Programs). The Cal Grant program expanded under her oversight in Financial Aid, helping students on their path toward graduation. Her next career stop will be event management consulting with RISE.

David Arndt, technician in the Physics Department, will retire in July after 33 years of service. Arndt joined the department in 1984 as an instructional support assistant. His many and varied responsibilities evolved to include demonstrations, equipment maintenance and repair, inventory, purchasing, metal and woodworking, and safety coordination. A reception for staff members retiring from the Physics Department will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday, June 4, at Meadow Park in San Luis Obispo. All are welcome.
